

DAVID CASSIDY

Screen Gems has upped its security staff at the Columbia Ranch. That's because Bobby Sherman will be taping his new fall series, getting together for ABC — and it's also where that other teen-age idol David Cassidy, tapes The Partridge Family. David has two gold albums (1 million dollars in sales) and he's on his way to a third gold single with "I'll Meet You Halfway," which sold 750,000 copies in New York alone. So, although the label now reads "The Partridge Family," Bell Records will soon be changing it — to "David Cassidy and The Partridge Family." Poor Shirley Jones.
