1950s Recalled

By Glen Campbell

The 1950s are recalled in music and comedy when Dom DeLuise, Buffalo Bob and Howdy Dooddy, Little Richard, Jerry Reed and David Cassidy appear as guests on the Glen Campbell Show tonight at 7:30 on the CBS Network (Channel 8, Charleston).

Comedy highlights find DeLuise spoofing the long run of the song "Shrimp Boats" on "Your Hit Parade," demonstrating the problems of doing a live dramatic television show and appearing as a hep-cat 1950s teenager thrust into the 1970s. Buffalo Bob and Howdy Dooddy bring back the days of the "Peanut Gallery," with Campbell showing up as a full-grown Howdy Dooddy.

Featured is a full-cast medley of some of the biggest rock hits of the fifties, including "Long Tall Sally," "Great Balls of Fire," "At the Hop," "I'm All Shook Up," "I'm Walkin'" and "Rock Around the Clock."
