

David Cassidy's Coming To Coliseum

GREENSBORO — The emergence of David Cassidy as a star in the fall of 1970 will be compared in later years to the explosion of Frank Sinatra in the 40's, Elvis Presley in the 50's, and The Beatles in the 1960's.

Co-star of the TV series, "The Partridge Family," David Cassidy will appear at the Greensboro Coliseum on Saturday,

HISTORIC OAK FALLS

WASHINGTON (AP) — A fierce snowstorm finally topped historic Bettin Oak.

Bettin Oak, a landmark at Morristown National Historic Park, New Jersey, had been ravaged by age and disease when it fell under the assault of high winds.

Reinforced with cables and patched with concrete, the magnificent black oak soared 125 feet over Jockey Hollow. Because the patches obscured many annual rings, the tree's reported age of 230 years is only a close estimate.

The great tree already dominated the landscape when Gen. George Washington and his troops wintered at Morristown in 1777 and again in 1779-80. Even then the tough oak was so large that soldiers desperate for firewood spared it in favor of easier-to-cut smaller trees.

The tree was named after Captain Adam Bettin, who was killed in a 1781 mutiny of Pennsylvania troops.
