

Q Singer David Cassidy looks so emaciated on TV. Just how much does he weigh? — Beth Humbert, Deland, Fla.

A The "Partridge Family" star doesn't have much on most birds, including his female stand-in, Jan Freeman (right). Cassidy, 21, five-feet-seven and a frail 115 pounds, is allergic to dust, never reads newspapers and rarely dates ("It's a hassle"). Commenting on his favorite star, he says: "I'm so involved with myself that nothing else interests me."
