FRIDAY

7:30 p.m. — Ch. 17 — Wall Street.

Broker Merrill Chapman discusses investment policies and what trends and traps to watch for. He is interviewed by Louis Rukeyser.

8:30 p.m. — Ch. 13 — Partridge Family.

Keith (David Cassidy), after seeing some experimental underground movies, tries to produce one himself and involves the whole family in the process. Repeat of Jan. 14. The "fringe" benefits of this series borders on the fantastic. David, for example, the son of Jack Cassidy, has become the idol of the 12-to-14 year-olds. His record sales, magazines and general merchandising value are worth millions. And it's all because of exposure in this series.
