

The Press Courier

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1973

Now completing his fourth and final year in The Partridge Family, David Cassidy is nearing the finishing touches of his house on an Hawaiian island. He says, "I have a great love of horses and will keep and race them there. So far I haven't had much success on the track but there is always the future."