

Broom Street Opens 'Cassidy Story' Friday

Broom Street Theater's newest production is an original biographical play "The David Cassidy Story." The play examines the pop phenomenon of David Cassidy and puts him into perspective in the fast-paced tumultuous American teen idol scene.

Borrowing freely from the wealth of material published weekly about David Cassidy in teen magazines as well as from his role in the network television show "The Partridge Family" a large Broom Street cast has combined a mass of backstage fact and fiction with a parade of bizarre characters that surround Cassidy in his show business life.

The show is at St. Francis House 1001 University Ave. at 8 p.m., Friday and Saturday, Feb. 16-17; 23-24, and March 2-3.
