

Saturday, March 31, 1973

David Cassidy Shuns Officials For Glamor Girl

LONDON — David Cassidy has found a glamorous girl friend during his visit to Britain.

This week, while he was supposed to be in bed ill, he was actually at dinner with beautiful 22-year-old singer-songwriter Susan Shifrin.

He failed to appear for lunch with Environment Under Secretary Eldon Griffiths and Tory Party Vice Chairman John Selwyn Gummer, but he kept his dinner date the same day with Susan at a terraced house in Barnet North London.

It was a dinner party for six given for 22 year old David by Don Murfet, who has been in charge of Cassidy's security on his European tour, and his wife, June. Florida-born Susan was a guest at one of David's Wembley concerts and "has seen him a couple of days," said a member of the Cassidy entourage.