

THE BEST OF BOTH WORLDS

note that in Australia he's appearing on the Melbourne Cricket Ground.

And only the Pope and Billy Graham, apart from sports teams, have ever done that.

Reason for using Eden Park is that everyone can be seated — and even the smallest fans will be able to see.

David Cassidy

Superstar David Cassidy [pictured] will drop in for his big concert at Eden Park on February 25 by helicopter.

And he'll leave the premier citadel of Auckland sport the same way.

"It's about the only way we can ensure he gets there on time and undamaged," Harry Miller's top publicity girl Patti Mostyn said today.

It will be the first time the 22,500-seat Eden Park has been used for anything but a sporting fixture.

But those who might consider Cassidy's appearance there as sacrilege should Cassidy's audience is pre-dominantly sub-teens — A lot of children who can easily be hurt if some get carried away.

To make sure this doesn't happen, Miller is flying in Cassidy's personal security consultants, Don Murford and Terry Slater.

Cassidy arrives at Auckland Airport at 7.30 a.m. on February 23.

Like as not he'll be wearing a T-shirt with an anti-litter slogan front and back.

"David is concerned about the environment, and he makes sure he gets that message across to the youngsters," Patti Mostyn says.
