

Cassidy not disappointed

AUCKLAND — Pop idol David Cassidy is not disappointed by the welcome he has received since his arrival in Auckland.

“This is my chance to break into New Zealand,” Cassidy said yesterday. “New Zealand is not London. There aren't millions of people here so it doesn't worry me.”

Cassidy's arrival at his press conference yesterday was delayed for 15 minutes while he took a phone call from Sydney.