

Out And About

There are plenty of happenings on the entertainment scene this week, with three top-line overseas acts appearing in Auckland.

David Cassidy performs Wednesday at Auckland Town Hall and seats have been withheld for sale at the door at $4.10. Don't miss this opportunity to see one of the world's most dynamic performers in action.

On Thursday night, Elton John will be appearing at the Western Springs Stadium at 8 p.m. Over the last few years, Elton John has become one of show business's biggest money spinners and such albums as "Honky Chateau," "Don't Shoot Me I'm Only the Piano Player" and "Goodbye Yellow Brick Road" have made recording history with their phenomenal sales.

The Peddlers are returning to New Zealand for their fifth tour and they will commence their season at the Ranch House on February 27.

Tavern Talent

The Hot Ash will be appearing at the Thoroughbred Tavern, Papakura, on Monday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights.

At the Otara Cinema, "The Clockwork Orange" finishes its season on Thursday evening one of the most controversial films of the decade and was based on the novel of the same name by Anthony Burgess.

The film contains much violence and, but for Kubrick's skilful direction, it could easily have become a sick and sordid saga. However, it is definitely not a movie for the easily upset. The great adventure film "The Getaway," starring Ali McGraw (Love Story) and Steve McQueen screens from Thursday night at Otara.

This film is directed by Sam Peckinpah (director of "The Wild Bunch") and prompted an off-screen romance between the two lead actors.

A film worth seeing in town at the moment is "The Day of the Jackal." This is the story of the attempted assassination of ex-French president, Charles de Gaulle and it is screening at the Westend Theatre.

David Cassidy, appearing tomorrow night at the Auckland Town Hall.