

Up north, they get the choice of Elton John, Zeppelin, Cassidy

by NEIL COLLINS

Auckland showgoers are in for a hat-trick of entertainment at the end of this month. Three outdoor shows in three nights will bring out the fans of David Cassidy, Elton John and Led Zeppelin.

Rival promoters are in a three-way tie for the stakes.

All three are massive draw-cards, but there is doubt that even the million-odd in the Auckland area are ready for such an onslaught.

Whatever happens weather-wise, the promoters are still bound to come out smiling, so don't feel too sorry for them.
