

WHEN STARS MEET

Swirl is believed to be the only dolphin born and raised successfully in captivity in Australia and possibly in the world.

It was just 76 centimetres (30in.) long and weighted 18 kilograms (40 lb.) when born nine months ago.

Now it is about 122 centimetres (48in.) long and weighs about 45 kilograms (100 lb.).

Cassidy yesterday travelled on the Sea World launch Odyssey and showed he was an accomplished one ski water skier.

He will appear at concert at the Milton tennis courts tonight.
