

Cassidy Music Fan, 14, Dies

LONDON (AP) — Bernadette Whelan, a 14-year-old pop music fan whose heart stopped at a David Cassidy concert in London four days ago, died early today at Hammersmith Hospital.

She had been unconscious since the night of the concert, during which more than 800 fans were treated for minor injuries and hysteria. Cassidy, 24, sent Bernadette a bouquet while she was unconscious.