

DAVID'S GIRL — IT'S NO SECRET ANYMORE

LONDON, Fri., AAP. — Pop star David Cassidy flew into London today with a huge fur coat — a birthday gift for his girl friend.

At the airport Cassidy was tight lipped about the romance.

"Her name is a secret," he said.

But the secret was soon out — his girlfriend is blonde, blue-eyed American actress Kay Lenz.

Miss Lenz, 24 today stars with Lee Marvin and Oliver Reed in "The Great Scout and Cathouse Thursday," which has its premiere in London next week.

Cassidy visited her London hotel and later the couple decided to let the world into their secret.

He said: "We are very much in love."

Kay, seen in the TV drama series "Rich Man, Poor Man," had previously refused to name her boyfriend.

Cassidy arrived in England as a birthday surprise for Kay and said he planned to stay for a week.
