

DAVID AND Shaun Cassidy are the first (and to my knowledge, the only) set of brothers to each separately hit No. 1 with his first chart single.

David was a member of the Partridge Family when it hit the top in November, 1970, with "I Think I Love You." The group hasn't hit the chart in eight years.

Then, four years ago to this day, younger brother Shaun was at No. 1 with the remake of the Crystals' hit, "Da Doo Ron Ron."

DAVID AND Shaun are the sons of the late Jack Cassidy, a veteran actor. David's first solo chart single — the last tie-breaker question which stumped many entries — was "Cherish" in 1971.
