

“Little Johnny Jones”

STAND up and cheer for a brand new version of a grand old show, George M. Cohan's all-American musical saga of "Little Johnny Jones" starring David Cassidy. Staged with a wonderful sense of fun, the production features such show-stopping songs as "Give My Regards to Broadway" and "I'm a Yankee Doodle Dandy" along with lively dancing that incorporates tap, tango, two-step, Charleston and clog routines. It's sparkling, up-beat entertainment for the entire family. Now in the final stages of a pre-Broadway tour scheduled for a December opening in New York, "Little Johnny Jones" has earned audience ovations and critical kudos from L.A. to Chicago. The show will be presented in 24 matinee and evening performances at the Music Hall, Oct. 6-24. Tickets are available only at the State Fair Box Office, 6031 Berkshire Lane in Preston Center (across from Sanger's), 214/691-7200, $7 to $22.50 (including admission to the Fair).
