

Cassidy dreams of lead in Broadway's Wonderful Life

By WILDER PENFIELD III
Staff Writer

HOPEFUL: David Cassidy, currently Joseph at the O'Keefe, tells me that his very favorite movie is It's A Wonderful Life, the Frank Capra classic, and that the wish he is most fervently trying to fulfill is to play the lead in a proposed Broadway musical version by Jerry Bock.

Bock is probably best known for composing Fiddler On The Roof, but Cassidy's favorite Broadway score is Bock's She Loves Me, which 20 years ago won his father (actor Jack Cassidy) a Tony.

● N.B. On Saturday, the 10 p.m. late show for Joseph And The Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat has become a 2 p.m. matinee, which makes the experience less expensive.