

• David Cassidy and Meryl Tanz—who announced last summer they'd tie the knot this month—still haven't informed their families when the hitching will take place. They are both together at the moment at their Santa Barbara ranch, while David unwinds from a tour of duty with "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat." He'll go back on the road with the musical next month, and will be playing Pittsburgh the same time his stepmother, Shirley Jones, is performing with the symphony orchestra in that city.
