

NEXT WEEK DAVID CASSIDY

Stars in

“JOSEPH AND THE AMAZING TECHNICOLOR DREAMCOAT”

What a long title for a show! But what a show! The best of their many hits — that is the opinion of the authors of this wonderful biblical rock musical; and that is quite a credit given the fact that they wrote EVITA, JESUS CHRIST SUPERSTAR and CATS. The authors-composers are, of course, Tim Rice and Andrew Lloyd Webber — as important to today's music as Wagner and Tchaikovsky were to their era. Although JOSEPH is a contemporary musical, it is honored with some of the great operas of the theatrical world.

The Kenley Players production of this famous musical stars DAVID CASSIDY of the Broadway production. The TIMES called him “made to order” for the role of “JOSEPH”. His singing voice is better than ever and “JOSEPH” is his favorite role.

Tom Carder who played the role of “Pharaoh” in the Broadway production again has the same role in the Akron production.

The narrator is played by Rosalyn Rahn, who also appeared with David Cassidy in the sold-out National Tour.

A large chorus of lady pit singers brings a thrilling sound to abet the vibrant orchestra as they enhance the glorious voices of the eleven brothers of Joseph, a hand-picked group of some of the finest singers in professional theatre.

“JOSEPH” will please the musical palate of young music lovers and delights others with the inspirational atmosphere of this famous biblical incident.

Bring the whole family and enjoy “JOSEPH” in one of its finest presentations on the Kenley stage at E.J. Thomas Hall in Akron

Performances are Tuesday through Saturday evenings a 8:30 p.m. and Sunday evening at 7:30 p.m. with matinees Saturday and Sunday at 2:45 p.m. Good seats available at the box office (open during intermission) or by phone: 216/375-0550 (Akron) or 216/241-7576 (Cleveland). Popular Kenley prices prevail.
