

Stars team up to beat drug threat

TOP pop stars have joined forces on a new anti-drugs video.

Dire Straits, Duran Duran, David Bowie, Matt Bianco, Bryan Ferry, Cliff Richard, Toyah, The Thompson Twins, Twigg Elton John and David Cassidy all appear on the video to promote a fund-raising record for the YMCA.

Music Change The World was written by an eight-year-old Australian boy, Brendan Woithe, as his contribution of the International Years of Youth and Peace.
