

DAILY MIRROR - Friday, March 6, 1987

CASSIDY FILLS THE TIME GAP

SEVENTIES teen idol David Cassidy is to take over Cliff Richard's star role in the hit musical Time.

David, 36, will play the part from April to July before handing over to Grease star John Travolta.

Producer Dave Clark said: "David has always been one of the people I

NEW FACE: David have wanted to take on the role, but we thought he would probably do it after John rather than before."

Travolta is expected to take the musical to Broadway in December.