

Sunday, June 12, 1994

THE INTELLIGENCER

A new leaf needed for David Cassidy?

Perhaps David Cassidy should title his next book, "C'mon, Get Lost."

A few hundred middle-aged fans came to Cassidy's book-signing Thursday in Dallas, but the former Partridge family member didn't let anyone get too close.

He refused to sign anything but copies of his new book, "C'mon Get Happy." He wouldn't permit anyone behind his table to pose for photographs. And he insisted that autograph-seekers have their names written on Post-it notes so that he could copy them down.