By Jackie Brett

Former "Partridge Family" member David Cassidy will perform May 23 and 24 in the Rio Vista Outdoor Amphitheater at Harrah's Laughlin.

Cassidy was the world's highest-paid solo live performer by age 21, and his fan club was the most popular in the world, exceeding those of both the Beatles and Elvis Presley.

In 1999, Cassidy partnered with writer-producer Don Reo to create the show "The Rat Pack is Back," which has been playing to sold-out audiences at the Sahara Hotel & Casino.

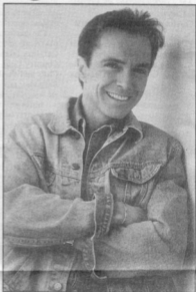

In 2000, Cassidy began co-starring with Sheena Easton in "At the Copa" at the Rio All-Suite Casino Resort. Cassidy also co-created the show with Don Reo. Cassidy closed the show in 2001 to return to concert stages around the world.

Tickets to Cassidy's show at the Rio Vista are at $19.70. For reservations, call (702) 298-8510.

Who says the '70s are over?

A weeklong '70s flashback will take place May 20-26 at Harrah's Laughlin. Prizes will be given away during a Prize is Right competition. Prizes include up to $1,000 cash, a trip for two to Harrah's New Orleans, dinner at Harrah's, logo items and tickets to David Cassidy's show.

At 5 p.m. daily in the Fiesta Showroom, three names will be drawn. Winners will be eligible to participate in a Prize is Right competition. Entrants will be shown a variety of everyday items and must guess what would have cost in the '70s. Players will win prizes based on points earned for correct answers.

David Cassidy will perform May 23 and 24.

entry into a Friday-night VIP cocktail party with the coaches in the Phoenix Suite and an awards ceremony, autograph session and auction.

The autograph-signing session and NFL-merchandise auction will be held in the Taos Room from 7 to 9 p.m. Saturday. This event is open to
