

Q What does David Cassidy say about his daughter recording his 1971 hit "I Think I Love You"? —Jessica C., Denver, Colo.

A "I hadn't heard about it," admitted Cassidy, whose hectic schedule promoting his own new CD, Then and Now, has kept him from seeing his daughter as often as he'd like. The single by Katie, 15, who lives in L.A. with her mom and stepdad, is due out in the next three weeks. Papa David, 52, lives with wife No. 3, Sue Shifrin, and son, Beau, 11, in Las Vegas, where he's a frequent headliner on The Strip.

Former Partridge Family star David Cassidy and daughter, Katie: Will she have the same success with the same song?