

VisionTV's "Unscripted" welcomes Seventies TV heartthrob David Cassidy

Posted on Wednesday, March 31, 2010 - 05:18 PM

Unscripted, an unconventional talk series from Canada's VisionTV, gives viewers a privileged glimpse into the personal and spiritual lives of the entertainment world's most iconic figures. The series airs across Canada on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Fridays at 10 p.m. ET / 7 p.m. PT. Daytime repeats air Monday to Friday at 4 p.m. ET / 1 p.m. PT.

To view full episodes and selected clips, visit <http://unscripted.ca/> or <http://video.visiontv.ca/>

Unscripted - Guests for the Week of April 5, 2010

Monday, April 5: Cody Longo

Rising star Cody Longo is a young Hollywood heartthrob whose credits include the TV hits Medium and Make It or Break It, as well as the feature film remake of Fame. Next up for the Colorado native: the big-screen comedy High School opposite Adrien Brody, Colin Hanks and The Shield's Michael Chiklis.

Follow Cody Longo on Twitter: <http://twitter.com/Codylongo>

Tuesday, April 6: David Cassidy

In his teen idol heyday, New York native David Cassidy was the world's highest-paid live entertainer. Retro TV fans know and love him as Keith Patridge from The Patridge Family, the hit musical comedy series in which he starred opposite his real-life stepmother, Shirley Jones. Still performing regularly today, he is father to a rising new star of his own, actress Katie Cassidy (Melrose Place, Supernatural).

Check out the official David Cassidy Web site: www.davidcassidy.com