Ab
It's one of those nights when you turn out the lights and you sit in the dark and say Db

to yourself, I miss her.
     Bbm
It's one of those moods when your body broods Eb                              Ab        Fm and you conjure up her picture and you kiss her.
Ab
It's one of those things for the pain it brings,
                                            Db
you say to yourself, hey, couldn't I live without it?

         Bbm                        Eb
Well, I think so, on the other hand, I doubt it.

CHORUS:
     Bbm                              Eb
Well, suddenly she's crashing through my mind like
waves upon the shore..(like waves upon the shore.)
                  Bbm
And I nod my head, whoa, yes, love, I'd welcome you Eb                        Ab again if you knocked upon my door..(knocked upon my door.)

                    Bbm
If you didn't, I'd seek you out love, I'd track you Eb                          Ab
down for sure, like a thousand times before.
(like a thousand times before)

    Bbm                                 Eb
It's so insane cause for all the rain, when you ask yourself,
                        Ab
could you do it again..you betcha..(for all the rain, when you ask yourself, you betcha.)

Ab
I hear a voice say, you got no chance and it makes me mad
                        Db
and I shout, oh yeah, who says so?
        Bbm                             Eb
Well, of course not, on the other hand, I guess so.
