

YOUR LETTERS

OLDEST FAN?

Dear Pat,

I am writing to you because I think I know David Cassidy's oldest fan! She is an old lady whom I visit every week.

You see, I belong to the "Adventurers" organization and about a year ago we started visiting old people. I began visiting a lady called Mrs. Dicks and during the last year she has become my closest friend (outside my family, that is). Not only is she my friend, but she is also a keen fan of David. Due to shortage of wall space I keep all my small pix of David in scrapbooks and one day I took all my scrapbooks to show her. She thinks David is "a nice young man with an honest face and clean hair", although she says that his hair is a little too long for her liking. However, she's getting used to it!

I tape all David's records for her so that she can hear them and give her opinions on them, which is very good most of the time. She's such a sweet person that the generation gap between us just doesn't exist.

KAREN LONG, TROWBRIDGE, WILTS.

Thanks for your really interesting letter, Karen. Isn't it great that David can appeal to every single age group? It's one sure sign that his talent is bound to keep him in the public eye for years and years — what could be better than that! ED

ATTENTION MIDLANDS!

Dear Pat,

This letter applies to all fans of David and the Partridges who come under the ATV Midland television area.

We rang the television centre and asked when the Partridge Family were coming back onto our screens, but were met with the reply, "Who's the Partridge Family?"

Well, obviously we want to do something about this! So, if you live in the Birmingham area and would like to join us in our plans for a demonstration, please write to us.

TOUGH QUERY

Dear Pat,

Please could you solve a query for me. On the "Cherish" album, at the beginning of "My First Night Alone Without You", is there a name spoken? If so, please could you tell me what the name is, because I could swear it sounds like, "Kathleen has gone away".

KAY HALL, LONDON, E.2.

Immediately we read your letter, we grabbed our copy of "Cherish", popped it on the old player, but... we couldn't hear ANYTHING! There really is nothing at all but silence between the songs on our copy. We'd be really interested to know if anyone else can hear any words spoken on their copy of the album. ED

FOUR EYES?

Dear Pat,

In a magazine that I read recently it said that David wore glasses when he wasn't working. I know that David had some trouble with his eyes when he was very young, but I thought that was all over years ago. Please could you put me straight on these facts?

MARION BAKER,
WELWYN GARDEN CITY, HERTS.

You may have noticed that in a lot of photos, David is wearing dark glasses. But don't worry he DOESN'T need glasses at all! He just likes wearing his shades to protect his eyes from the sun, or the harsh glare of studio lighting. And doesn't he look super and sexy in them! ED

BUDDING POET

Dear Pat,

I made up the following poem on my paper round one morning last August. I wrote it down on paper as soon as I got home. I thought how beautiful the trees and sky were, and it just formed in my head. I dedicate it to David.

"Things"

The trees are green, the sky is blue,
All these things I give to you.
But one day I hope you'll see
That once these things belonged to me.

I give these things with all my heart.
We caused so much sorrow we just had to part.
We stood alone, just you and I,
We stood alone to say goodbye.

I could see quite clearly the tears in your eyes,
The tears that appeared when we said our goodbyes.
The trees are green, the sky is blue,
All these things I give to you.

MANDY HALL, GUILDFORD, SURREY.
