

YOUR LETTER

Mobster

Dear Pat,

My sister and I have had a slight disagreement about the picture on the back of the January Mag. She says it is a picture of David made up. But I say it is his father.

Could you please tell me who it is with Shirley Jones?

HAZEL PALMER,

WEST WICKHAM, KENT.

'Fraid your sister's right, Hazel. It IS David, made up for an episode of the Partridge Family series which was being filmed at Columbia Ranch at the time. ED

Rock Me!

Dear Pat,

I am writing this in the hope that you will print it in David's mag. Then I can be pretty sure that David himself will get to read it!

What I want to say is, thank you, David, for such a fantastic album as 'Rock Me Baby'. I just can't get over all the changes of voice you have in each song. It's wonderful. One of my favourites is 'Warm My Soul' — I've never really heard you sing like that before, David. It sounds tremendous!

I'm sure that everyone else who has bought the L.P. will agree it's the best one you have ever made. I love the Partridge Family songs, too, but this new music really makes a change and I hope you produce more and more.

LIZ VALE,
BIRMINGHAM.

We'll answer for everyone else, Liz, and say, WE AGREE! ED

Happy Birthday

Dear Pat,

I have written a poem for David on his birthday. It's called, "Happy Birthday, David."

Happy Birthday David, you're twenty-three

Here's a wish for you from me

With all my love and all my kisses

To you I send many birthday wishes.

Here's hoping that we'll meet someday

Over here or in the U.S. of A.

If only it would all come true

I'd be right there sitting next to you!

I'd better say goodbye to you

To let you do the things you like to do.

So Happy Birthday and all the rest

To you, who will always be the best!

KAREN LAWSON,

LONDON, N.W.10.

True Fan

Dear Pat,

Here's what being a true fan of David's means to me.

Being a David Cassidy fan means . . . playing 'How Can I Be Sure' till everybody in the house knows it off by heart.

. . . kicking yourself if you've just been out and missed David on the television.

. . . having to walk to and from school every day for a fortnight so you can buy his latest single with the bus fares.

. . . arguing with your friends over who's got the most mix of him.

. . . not just loving David because he's fabulous looking, but also because he has a great personality and a gorgeous voice.

But most of all knowing that he cares about every one of his fans and loving him even more because of this.

ANNA IPPOLITO,
A D.C. SUPER-FAN.

The Collector

Dear Pat,

The first D.C. Mag I saw was the second edition and since then I have been collecting every one. However, my collection does not seem complete without No. 1 of the mag. Could you please tell me if there is any way in which I can obtain back copies?

DAVID FAN,
BUCKFASTLEIGH, DEVON.

Thought I'd answer loads of letters at one fell swoop by printing this one! All copies of the mag, from the first up to this one, are available from our Back Issues department. They cost 18p each, to cover postage. Just send a P.O. to our address, made payable to David Cassidy Magazine and crossed with two lines. Please don't forget to include a note containing your name, address and a list of the issues you want. ED
