Hi!

Well, it looks like we're all in for double trouble this month. Or maybe, and most likely, it's double delight! The other guy on the cover of this month's mag is another David! His name's David Bridger, and he's a special friend of David . . . Cassidy, that is. You see, every time David Cassidy is in Britain, his mate David Bridger is there, right at his side to see that David (Cassidy, that is!) is well taken care of.

Because Dave Bridger is such a good friend of David, he has very special powers, given to him by David C. and his managers, to see that a lot of the moment to moment problems that follow a superstar like David C. around. So he's a double delight for David, too. Imagine what a God-send it would be to have a friend who could also make your troubles disappear in a flash, and you can understand why the two Daves are so close.

And you can also read about it in the pages of this month's mag! On page four, there's a special feature on the two Dave's. We managed to get an exclusive interview with the guy who was closest to David in Britain. And there's all sorts of inside facts about David, which confirm what we've suspected all the time: that David Cassidy is a very, very nice guy!

And not only did the other Dave give us his personal remembrances of David, but we've also got lots of pix from David's last visit here. We've always tried to bring you the best photographs possible of David, and we're especially proud of this month's batch, so take a good, careful look!

Also in this month's pages, you'll find a number of other bits and bobs on David. For instance, did you know that David is interested in buying a waterbed? The whole story is on page 22, along with the usual titbits about David.

On page 24, you'll be able to read about the special treat Sam Hyman gave David for his birthday. We don't reckon that it's just a lucky coincidence that David has two good pals like Dave and Sam, and by the time you've finished both features, neither will you. He just seems to have something special about him!

And on page 19, David gives us all a special lesson on gardening, or at least on the special Cassidy touch. We've been debating whether or not David has a green thumb, and so far we've not got an answer. Maybe you've got some ideas, so if you have, just send them in.

Now, before we go, just a few words about the so-called "new" David Cassidy. You may have read something about it in the last few weeks. Apparently, the rest of the world has "discovered" that David actually has talent!! Well, we've been patient for twelve issues now, so we reckon that it's time for all of us to say, altogether now "WE TOLD YOU SO!"
