Hello there!

I just wish I could tell you all about the marvellous things that David's got coming up any time now . . . Then you'd realise why I'm so certain about all this. We're waiting on news from David any day now to give us the O.K. to pass on the full info about these sensational up-and-coming goodies to YOU. But I know you'll understand that he can't go spreading it all around the world before everything is signed, sealed and delivered. All I can say is: don't miss next month's mag, 'cos we're bound to have all the delicious details in that!

Of course, David's hoping to be able to release his special news to the British press even before then . . . So you might well already be in on the secret when you're reading this. If you are — see what I mean about it being so fantastic!!!

If not, how about giving your imaginations a little bit of exercise and trying to guess what David's got up his sleeve? You could even organise a competition with your friends and find out who knows David best!

Although I'm bursting with frustration at not being able to talk to you about 'The Plan', there is something else you might like to be reminded of. And this is something that I can tell you all the details about. You see, I'm wittering about the set of David Cassidy super-pix you can get right now from the Fan Club, just in case you hadn't realised. Who doesn't want four fabulous photos of David — specially when they're large-size 8" x 6"? And only 30p for the set! So, if you've got a few empty picture frames knocking about the place, here's what you need to fill them! And, if you haven't got any empty frames — well you'd better see about getting some right away! 'Cos these are pix that you're going to want to have out on show, not tucked away in a drawer or cupboard! (Much as we'd all like to have the real David tucked away somewhere like that!!!)

Just one other thing: when you're sending off for your set of David pix, don't forget to write your full name and address really clearly, will you? It's okay for you . . . You know where you live! But it's not that simple for me and the postman! And I know what I'm talking about, 'cos I've still got a hefty pile of Fan Club wallets cluttering up my office which have already made one attempt to reach their owners . . . The G.P.O. aren't that good at performing miracles, you know. So help them out: give your full address — postal code, the lot. That way, perhaps I won't get so many wandering wallets coming back to me marked 'Insufficient Address'.

Please claim them soon! Or they'll be taking over the office completely . . . Help!!!

P.S. To all of you who have written to me about the new wallets, hang on! They're not ready yet.

Susie
