

YOUR LETTERS

"A BOY NAMED DAVID"

Dear Pat,

When I went to see David at Wembley on March 18th, 4 p.m., a record was played over the loudspeaker before the show started. A part of the chorus was 'a boy named David'.

I was wondering if this has been issued as a single. I think I heard somebody say it was by the Seashells. Could you tell me if this is true and if I can still get it at my local record shop.

JANICE, LONDON.

The record is actually called 'A Boy Named David' and is by Debbie and the Dreamboats on the Bell label. I'm sure your record shop could order you a copy. It was released round about last March '00s we printed the lyrics in Mickie Songbook! ED

IRISH FANS

Dear Ed,

I'm a great fan of David's from Ireland. I buy the mag every month but I have never seen a letter from Ireland on this page. I don't think this is because David has no Irish fans, but I think the reason is that they probably all think David has too many letters to read already!

If you print this letter, perhaps it will persuade them to write in. I really do envy you people in England. We are lucky to get his mag and a few books with him in, but you can see him in the flesh at his concerts.

CAROLINE O'REILLY, IRELAND.

Let's hope the people who arrange David's concerts will take note that there are thousands of people in Ireland — and Scotland, too — who are all ready to give him a fantastic welcome. I know that David really wants to do some shows in Ireland and Scotland. It's all a matter of finding the right concert hall. Let's keep our fingers crossed. ED

DISPUTE!

Dear Ed,

In the July issue of the mag, you mentioned Pamela Leach, 'David's most devoted fan'. Although I agree that she must be very fond of David, many other fans are just as devoted and love him just as much. Like me, a lot of girls would have given anything in the world to have been able to see David at all his concerts but we just did not have the time or money to do this. (Obviously being at school has its advantages. One is lack of money and the other is not having the time to do what you would like.)

If I can scrape up enough money, I'll still have to wait two years to go to Encino because I want to get my 'A' levels. Although Pam is a very lucky girl, it is wrong to say that she is David's most devoted fan, because some people's love just cannot be measured, although they have not been lucky enough to meet him or even see him. Anyway, best wishes to Pam and, if you're reading this, Pam, please give David my love if you meet him.

G. RINGER,
BROMLEY.

I'm sure many people will agree with you. There are lots of people who love David and just cannot do anything about it. Pam IS lucky, but she has worked very hard, devoting all her energies to achieving her ambition — to be near David. And she's proved something, too — that dreams CAN come true. So I'm sure she's given a lot of people one great thing. Hope! Good luck Pam. ED

DIET WITH DAVID

Dear Pat,

In the June issue of the mag, you asked if anyone had been helped by David. Well, David is helping me to diet! Many times I've tried but, when it comes to dieting, I'm weak-willed. Now, every time I reach for the biscuit tin I think of David and, instead of eating, go and play some of his records.

I have been on the diet for over a week and have already lost five pounds. I now weigh 8 st. 5 lbs. and hope to lose another 9 lbs. Thanks a million, David!

MARTINE KENNETT,
ESSEX.
Hope you've STOPPED your diet by the time David's next record is released, you might fall through the hole in the middle! Seriously though, we're very pleased to hear your diet is working, and we hope you've managed to keep it up. ED
