Hi there!

I guess I deserve it after being so proud of myself last month for getting it right about David's visit. It's all so silly, but I guess I'll quit apologizing until I explain what I'm apologizing for! You see, last month, at the very end of this page, I told you that we'd have lots of pix of David and Susan, Shirley, Danny, Dave, Suzanne and the whole Partridge crew turned sailor.

Well, I goofed! We've got those pix all right, and they'll be in the mag next month. But Pat decided that you'd prefer to see the pix of David's visit last month. As you've already noticed, we've got plenty of them in the mag and they're super, but I still reckon Pat could have told me!! They'll be in the mag next month, and I don't reckon that too many of you will mind, especially with the great pix we have this month.

Now, that's enough crying over spilt milk! There's just too much to celebrate about this month to be downhearted for very long. After "Daydreamer", we were lucky enough to have "Dreams Are Nothing More Than Wishes" released. And what a super album it is, too! But there's no sense in me going on and on about the album. As I'm sure you already know, any album of David's is worth hearing!

I've been going on for over half my allotted space, and I still haven't told you my main news for the month. Well, you can't really call it news, it's more like a reminder. Next month is Christmas, and I know many of you will want to send David a Christmas greeting. Of course, you can send the card to me and I'll forward it. But if you want to send it directly to David, it's the easiest thing in the world. . . . provided you start NOW!

You see, I've had a chat with the G.P.O., and they're expecting the biggest Christmas rush in history this year. They've asked me to advise you that if you want to make sure that your card arrives on time, you'll have to allow at least ten days by air mail and three weeks by regular post. The address is DAVID CASSIDY, COLUMBIA RANCH, HOLLYWOOD, CALIFORNIA, U.S.A.

December is also an important month for two other Partridges. . . . well, I guess it might be more accurate to say another Partridge and a Kincaid! December 10th will be Susan's 21st birthday, while on the 15th, Dave Madden will be well over 21!! Of course, what I said before about the post is just as true for Birthday greetings, especially Dave's.

If you notice on page 18, there's a pic of David autographing a guitar. Well, that guitar will be sold at auction, and the proceeds will go to the Stars' Spastic Association, a very worthwhile charity. In case you are interested in buying it, Mr. Oliver Arbitr of the Fender Soundhouse has made the first bid: £1,000!
