

YOUR LETTERS

AN APPRECIATION

Dear Pat,

I do hope that David reads this as I would like him to know just how much I enjoy his new album, 'Dreams are Nothing More than Wishes'.

When I first listened to it I can't honestly say that I was terribly keen, but now, I can certainly say that it is the best L.P. he has ever done.

My favourite is 'Some Old Woman' and his version of 'Summer Days' is a lot better than the one sung by the Partridge Family.

I could go on for ages about this super L.P., it is so fantastic. But after reading this, David, I hope that you can see just how much I appreciate your talent.

PAULINE SMITH, Reading.

David is pleased that all his fans like the album so much that he can't wait till his concerts where he will be singing in front of his appreciative audience. ED

HOBBIES: DAVID!

Hi, Pat!

In our class at the moment our teacher has asked us all to do a project on our hobbies and interests. My friend and I have decided to do a large folder which will contain pictures and writing about our hobby. Yeah, you've guessed. David!

A lot of our information has been obtained from your fantastic magazine but there are a couple of questions that I haven't been able to find the answers to and was hoping that you could help.

My first question is—Could you please tell me David's mother's name? Secondly, could you tell me when his first acting role on television was, and on what programme?

Sorry to have taken up your time, but I would be ever so grateful for these answers.

LINDA GREEN, Battersea.

David's mother's name is Evelyn Ward and his first part in a television programme was a series in America called F.B.I. This was in 1969.

Good luck with the project. Hope it goes well. ED

BROTHERS AND SISTERS

Dear Pat,

I wonder if you can help solve a problem my sister and I have. We have been arguing lately as to how many brothers David has. My sister reckons that he has a stepbrother named Shaun, whereas I was sure that David had two brothers.

Could you please tell us how many brothers David has and how many sisters?

PAMELA KELLY, Richmond.

I'm afraid to say that neither of you are right. David has three stepbrothers and no sisters. Their names are Shaun, Patrick and Ryan. Hope that helps solve your arguments. ED

POEM

Dear Pat,

Here is a poem I have written for David. Hope he enjoys reading it!

Dear David, what the future holds in store can never be foreseen

Only with the passing years can we see what might have been

*So forget about tomorrow and think only of today
Of the fans whom you give pleasure with the talents you display.*

Fame is yours, you are a star, the whole world knows your name

But as we travel on life's highway, we play a guessing game

With each tomorrow, each new dawn, we laugh, we love, we live

And of that love and laughter you have so much to give.

So carry on dear David, I'm sure your fans will say No matter what tomorrow brings, we are with you all the way

We will love when you are singing, your smile gives us a thrill

And when the years have aged us, we will remember you still.

ANGELA GORDON, Aberdeen.
