

WHAT DO YOU WANT DAVID TO DO ?

David has said it often enough. . . . He wants his fans to be happy. And he wants to do all he can to make them that way.

Well, bearing that in mind, we thought it might be a good idea to give you, David's fans, your chance to have your say. So at least David'll know whether he's going the right way about making 1974 the happiest year of your life! And there's always the possibility that he might not have thought of everything, isn't there?

So we decided to do a Spot Check and find out what David's fans would programme for him in the year ahead. Our first step was to emerge in force from the office and waylay any passing girls who looked as though they might fit the bill.

One thing was instantly clear. . . . There is no shortage of Cassidy fans! Not in London anyhow. Only very few of the girls' we talked to admitted that they weren't really too keen on him. And there were, of course, the odd one or two who reckoned he was:

"Awful, he's got no talent and he's not even good looking." So "He can jump off the Eiffel Tower as far as I'm concerned!"

Well, everyone has the right to their own opinion I suppose. But you sometimes can't help wondering if they've ever really looked at David properly or given his music a fair hearing. Not when they come out with comments like that little lot!

BIASSED

Maybe we're biased. . . . Of course we are! I guess you can't help being a little bit biased when you love a fantastic guy like David.

Anyway, it was very nice to know that there seem to be more folks around who are biased our way than who take the opposite point of view!

So let's have a listen in now, and find out what David's fans have in mind for him. Remember, they're speaking for you too. And, if you didn't get a chance to put a word in this time, you can always let us know how you feel by dropping a line into your nearest post-box!

On one point everyone was unanimous. . . . David must visit Britain more often!

Of course, he's getting the year off to a good start with his World Tour. But, as Jackie Kennett of Camden Town pointed out:

"It would take a solid month of concerts spread over the whole of Britain to give all David's fans the chance to see him live. So, unless he stays with us for a lot longer than ever before, there are still bound to be thousands of disappointed fans at the end of this visit."

Penny Bartram of Herne Hill agreed, but reckoned:

For Superstars like David, the future is always full of doubt
