

YOUR LETTERS

JOYOUS FEELINGS

Dear Pat,

If only there were words in which to describe my joyous feelings as I learned of David's forthcoming visit to this country. I hope you print this letter in the hope that David will read it and be aware of our thanks. So far we have only had this magazine to keep us going.

A thousand kisses and thanks David, and we're looking forward to seeing you.
LORETTA!

MAN ALIVE

Dear Pat,

If it is possible, could you ask any David Cassidy fans if they could send me a postcard of the area they live in, as I would like to make a book of them for David before he comes to England in April. It's one way David will be able to see our country.

Yours sincerely,
LIZ HUNGERFORD, 25 Milton Close, Henley on Thames, Oxon.

What an excellent idea, Liz! Anyone who has regularly read these pages knows how much David would love to spend more time in Britain. But until then, a collection of post cards, sent to Liz at the address above, would make an excellent souvenir for David to take with him.

SOMEONE SPECIAL

Dear Pat,

Here is a poem for David. I hope he likes it!
*I pray each night my prayers for you
My prayer is that I could be near you,
To be near you would be something Special,
It's not that you're a famous star
It's just that I love you as you are
So please, please hear my plea
My plea for you alone. I love you
I love you, I love you,
I do
Hear my heart beat moan for you.
MANDY DREHER, Chaddesden, Derby.*

Dear Pat,

I am sure many people enjoyed the Man Alive programme "Weekend At Wembley" and would like to see it again. If so, could you ask them to send their name and address to me and when I have enough I will send them to the studio with a letter asking to repeat the programme. I am sure it will bring back many happy memories to a lot of people.

Thank you,
JOANNA HEWITT: 26 St. David's Drive, Edgware, Middlesex.

PARTRIDGE MALE

Dear Pat,

I am more a fan of David Cassidy and the Partridge Family than ever before. I am a boy, my age is 16½. Do you think that my liking David is wrong, because when I'm at work and I mention his name they say "Oh, that creep"!

Please reply to this letter and tell me your views on the matter.
STEPHEN, Teesside.

We have had so many letters like yours, Stephen, that I've decided something must be said. It is very sad that so many of David's male fans feel embarrassed about liking him and his music, when there is nothing at all to be ashamed of.

There are a lot of blokes about who like David, and they should be congratulated on their good taste. ED

These two lucky girls, along with a third (not pictured) were lucky enough to meet David in Hollywood. For the full story, see next month's mag.
