Hello!

Well, we're still in one piece here after the overwhelming amount of post we've received in the last month. Of course, a lot of it was for David, who celebrated his 24th birthday on the 12th of this month. All that has been forwarded to Los Angeles, where David will be getting a chance to go through it now that he has returned from the first segment of his world tour.

From all the reports we've received, it looks like David was an enormous success in the Far East. And as you'll see in our first feature this month, the only word for David's performances in Australia and New Zealand is DYNAMITE!

But birthday cards and messages were only a portion of the post we've received in the last few weeks. In case you haven't guessed, we had an enormous response to our IMAGES OF DAVID competition. It really was difficult to decide who the winners were, but we finally came up with five who were just a bit better than the rest. The Winners names are: Virginia Butt, of Marchwood, Hants.; Maureen Jones, of Scunthorpe, Lincs.; Beverley Wyatt, of Stevenage, Herts.; Carole Sanders, of Kirkby, Lincs.; and Caroline Branney, of Sale, Cheshire.

It really is a shame that we couldn't print all the winning entries, but if you look at pages ten and eleven, you'll see the entries of Virginia and Maureen. We all thought that these two were the best samples sent in. But I would like to thank all of you who entered, and you can be sure that David will have a chance to see your work when he comes over in May.

As you must have noticed on our cover, we've got a fabulous competition this month, in which you can win David's T-shirt, which he recently autographed especially for us. Of course, every one will want to enter this competition, so just turn to page 23 and start! Just make sure that you post your entry so that it arrives no later than May 15th. We'll announce the winner's name in the June issue of the mag.

Oh, yes, and one more thing. As you know, Music World & Superstar Magazine has merged with Beat Instrumental. This of course means that the readers of the new Music World & Beat Instrumental will have a better chance than ever to read about the big names in the music world, as well as lots of inside information on the instruments and techniques that give the stars that extra, special "something". So if you are interested in the world of music, don't miss this month's Music World & Beat Instrumental, on sale now at your local newsagent.
