

YOUR LETTERS

SUBSCRIPTION

Dear Pat,

I just thought that I'd drop you a line to ask how I can obtain a year's subscription to the D.C. mag.

ANNETTE NOLAN, Brentford

Thanks for reminding us, Annette. It seems that we keep telling people how to address their envelopes and fill out their postal orders, but it's been quite a while since we gave the details.

The price of a year's subscription to the mag is £2.88. To get your copy, send a cheque or postal order for that amount, made payable to BEAT PUBLICATIONS, to David Cassidy Subscription, 58 Parker St., London WC2B 5QB.—ED.

AN APPRECIATION

Dear Pat,

When I read the March '74 issue of the David Cassidy Magazine, I was pleased to hear that you send some of the letters to David.

I started to like David when I saw him in the Partridge Family years ago and ever since then I've been wild about him.

Throughout this time I've heard people criticize him. Some of the things that I've read in some magazines, to put it plainly, is just ridiculous.

So, if you read this David, good luck for the future and just keep singing and being happy for us because we all love you and wish you the best of luck.

ISABEL JACKSON, Nottingham

Thank you so much, Isabel. David does indeed receive most of his letters, and he certainly enjoys reading as many as he can. And no wonder—with loyal fans like he has, who wouldn't!—ED.

HALF-BROTHERS

Dear Ed,

Please, can you tell me the names of David's half-brothers?

LORNA DRAIN, Edinburgh

David has three half brothers, Lorna. Their names are Shaun, Patrick and Ryan.—ED.

THIS WEEK

Dear Pat,

I saw a letter in the D.C. mag with a girl trying to have the "Man Alive" programme on David reshown.

Well, I'm going to write and try to get the "This Week" programme on David reshown. I would like as much support as possible; the more signatures I get, the more chance of seeing it again.

Anyone who encloses an S.A.E. will receive any news I get after sending the letters, as well as a pic of David for their support.

WENDY CANTRILL, Doncaster

Good luck, Wendy. We're sure you'll need it, at least in answering the post!—ED.
