

And then it's time to head for the concert ..... (continued)

YOUR LETTERS

PHOTOGRAPHER

Dear Pat,

I am writing to you in hope that someone reading the David Cassidy Magazine will have taken some photographs of David at Shawfield.

If so, could you please send me the negatives, as in all the excitement to get to the concert I left my camera behind. If you could do this for me, I would be eternally grateful.

CHRISTEEN MACMILLAN,
96 Gibson St., Hillhead, Glasgow

Well, readers, how about it? Can anybody give Christeen a chance to recapture those moments at Shawfield? ED.

CLOTHES

Dear Pat,

David is always wearing different clothes in every picture. Does he buy his own clothes or have them made for him, and does he design them?

Also, does David have fans coming around his house in America or is it closed off?

HELEN BISHOP,
Reading, Berks.

David buys most of his casual clothes off the peg, Helen, but he does have his performing clothes made especially for him. He doesn't design them himself, but prefers to explain what he wants to a designer.

There was a time when David's house in the States was under a state of permanent siege by his fans. Fortunately for him, he had a sturdy fence around the building. But now, since he left the Partridge Family, he is pretty much left alone by his former fans. Maybe they aren't as loyal as the British bunch! ED.

THIS WEEK

Dear Pat,

In magazine number 25 you printed the name of a girl, Wendy Canrill, who wants to start a petition to have the "This Week" programme in which David appeared reshown. Can you give us her full address?

DIANA CROSS, Leighton Buzzard, Beds.

Thanks for asking, Diana! Originally, we intended to have readers send their letters to our address, and then we would forward them. But since there are so many letters, and Wendy doesn't mind, we will print her address.

If you would like to see the "This Week" programme re-televised, write to WENDY CANTRILL, 7 Lindrick Close, Benacar, Doncaster, Yorks. DN4 7SL. ED

PLEASED

Dear Pat,

Just a quick note to thank David for releasing "Please Please Me" on a single. I prayed that he would after hearing his incredibly great version at both White City and Manchester.

Thanks, David, it's such a great tribute to the Beatles for a great artist like yourself to revive one of their greatest hits.

SUSAN KIRKBY, Nottingham

Message delivered Susan, and we couldn't agree with you more. The only problem is deciding which version we prefer. I wonder how other readers feel? ED.
