

YOUR LETTERS

DAVID'S MOTHER

Dear Pat,

Could you tell me if David's real mother is dead because I've read that she is in many mags.

Thanks a lot,

JULIE, Southampton

Julie, I'm pleased to say that David's real mother, Evelyn Ward, is alive and very well indeed!

I really can't explain why the magazines you've been reading should think otherwise. Perhaps it's because David's grandfather died earlier this year, and they have got it slightly wrong.

SUSAN ENGAGED?

Dear Pat,

In a recent issue of The David Cassidy Magazine, there was a picture of David dancing with Susan Dey. I noticed that Susan had a ring on her engagement finger. I would like to know if she is engaged and if so, if she is engaged to David.

Please print this letter as I am sure some other people noticed this, and some of them just might be wicked enough to say that she was definitely engaged to David.

Well, as you can read in the second feature in this month's mag, David is certainly not engaged to Susan (or anyone!). Susan, as far as I know (s still playing it pretty much as a solo—after all, she's still young!

But there have been some rumours going around that Susan has been seeing quite a bit of another Cassidy—David's half-brother, Shawn Cassidy!

GLASGOW

Dear Pat,

In the July issue of The David Cassidy Magazine, on page 28 it says "David races offstage after White City." But I'm sure he had white trousers and black jumper. Could you please tell me which is right, as I was at White

City and am sure that he had on the clothes I told you about.

KAYE TEAL, Pontefract, Yorks.

Caught again, Kaye! Thank goodness we have such careful readers. Yes, that photo in the July issue was taken at Glasgow, and not White City as we previously stated.

Unfortunately, our photographer was in a hurry when he put the caption on the back, and we just didn't check as carefully as we should. My apologies to anyone who was confused.

MIX AND MATCH

Dear Pat,

I just bought my copy of David's new live album and I think it's really great, but every time I listen to it, I try to figure out which songs were taken from which concerts.

I think I have a fair idea now, but I couldn't be sure. Could you possibly tell me which tracks came from which concerts?

SUE REEVES, Harrow, Middx.

I'm afraid that this is almost impossible, Sue. David made sure that the best tracks from every concert went on the album, but somewhere along the line the actual locations of the taping were lost. Perhaps our readers can pool their great knowledge of the gigs and identify the scene of some of the recordings. Anyone care to try and help Sue?

ED.
