Hello!

I know we don't celebrate it in this country, but all the same I just thought that I would tell you that it's coming up for Thanksgiving time in the United States. On the 28th of this month, David will be sitting down with his mouth watering, waiting to tuck into a big Thanksgiving dinner!

I don't know if he'll be able to resist eating a bit of turkey or not. As you know, David has been on a pretty rigorous vegetarian diet for quite awhile. Still, with a big roasted turkey in the vicinity, I can't see how he'll be able to resist.

This is the season in the States when people get together and think about how much they have to be thankful for. It's not a bad custom, really, and I thought maybe we could take a hint from our American cousins. After all, we've got quite a lot to be grateful for.

Just for starters, how about David's record releases in the last year? We've been privileged to see a tremendous change this year. From the beginning with songs like the fabulous numbers on Dreams Are Nuthin' More Than Wishes, David has given his fans an increasingly larger look at the new, real Cassidy. And not surprisingly, David has been more than accepted by the British delegation!

The quality of his songs seems to get better and better, and you will soon see just how good David can be. After all, he decided to break with an otherwise happy arrangement with his record company so that he could devote himself to HIS kind of music.

As much as you may regret David's departure from The Partridge Family, you can be pretty sure that the next thing David does will be quite a bit different. And yet I'm betting that all of David's fans will really appreciate his next offering. It's not final yet, but it looks like we may be able to see David in a film sometime in the next year. And that is quite a lot to be thankful for!

Last but not least, let's not forget David's fantastic live concert tour earlier this year. Despite the tragic circumstances that marred David's White City gig, virtually everybody at Glasgow and Manchester thought that the concerts there were the best of all time.

That's about all for this month, except to remind you that we've still got a limited number of souvenir programmes for sale. If you would like one, just send a cheque or postal order for 30p (made payable to BEAT PUBLICATIONS) to SOUVENIR PROGRAMME, 58 Parker St., London WC2B 5QB.

STOP PRESS - I've very nearly forgotten to remind you that renewal time is coming up fast for fan club members. Make sure you don't miss your all new Fan Club Wallet, complete with a poster, 2 fantastic pins and an up-to-date fact sheet, all for only 86p at the address above.

Susie
