

YOUR LETTERS

DAVID'S BOOK

Dear Pat,

I recently read in a magazine that David was going to write a book about his recent tour and that he and Henry Diltz were going to work together on it.

It was said that there would be facts and pictures never seen before.

Is this true, and if so, when will it come out?

SUSIE, Leeds

It certainly is true, Susie, and in fact we reported this in the July issue of the mag. But as of this moment, we have no further details about the book. ED

SPECTACLE?

Dear Pat,

I would like you to answer my problem if possible. In some editions of David's magazine, David appears to be wearing glasses even though he is not outside.

I would like to know if these are sun glasses or ordinary glasses as they are ever so slightly tinted.

It would stop a lot of quarrelling if you could help.

SUE HARPER, Birmingham

We're glad to help, Sue. David occasionally wears some tinted glasses, which he wears just to make a change. And that's as good as a rest! ED

PHOTOGRAPHS

Dear Pat,

I am writing to you in hope that someone reading the David Cassidy Magazine will have taken some photographs of David at Shawfield.

If so, could you please send me the negatives, as in all the excitement to get to the concert I left my camera behind. If you could do this for me, I would be eternally grateful.

CHRISTEEN MACMILLAN,
96 Gibson St., Hillhead, Glasgow

Well, readers, how about it? Can anybody give Christeen a chance to recapture those moments at Shawfield? ED.

DAVID'S RING

Dear Pat,

A few weeks ago I watched 'Colombo' on television, in which Jack Cassidy was a special guest. I noticed a ring the same as David's on the little finger of Jack Cassidy's right hand—the same finger as David wears his ring on.

Is this the ring given to David by his father, or do they both have one the same?

CHRISTINE TURNBULL, Edinburgh

Dear Pat,

While watching Jack Cassidy on T.V., I noticed that he had the same ring as David.

Could you please tell me whether this is the same ring or do they both have one?

TRACIE MOORE, Southend, Essex

Dear Pat,

I have noticed for a few years now that David has always worn a gold ring on his little finger on his right hand. He has the ring in every picture and poster I have of him.

I've never seen him without it. Could you tell me if it was given to him by someone special.

ADELE FOSTER, Hayes, Middlesex

Thanks for your letter, Adele. We occasionally get letters that answer each other.

Rather than answer them separately, I thought that this time we would put them together, with just the brief note that Jack Cassidy bought two rings about six years ago—one for himself and one for David. ED

