

YOUR LETTERS

SHIRLEY'S DIVORCE

Dear Pat,

Can you tell me if it's true that David's father and stepmother, Jack and Shirley, are going to get a divorce? I saw it in a newspaper recently, but I just can't believe it, especially as they seem to be so happy together.

Please, do you know anything about it?

PAMELA SMITH, Little Brickhill, Bucks.

I'm afraid that it does seem to be the truth, Pamela. Shirley is suing Jack for divorce after almost fifteen years of marriage.

David, of course, is used to these kinds of things, and of course his mum and dad were divorced a long time ago.

But that doesn't really make it much easier. I guess it's one of those things that will take awhile to get used to.

green. I read somewhere that David has hazel eyes and I guess that the reason his eyes seem green sometimes is because of the lighting.

Is that right?

NORMA ALLEN, Nottingham

David's eyes are hazel, Norma, but that is kind of confusing. Hazel eyes can vary from green to brown, depending on the light, or even what you wear.

There really is no way to tell, and as you can see by looking at our cover, in one pic, David seems to have brown eyes, while in the other, they appear green. Hope that answers your question, but it just might confuse you instead!

CHERISH

ED

Dear Pat,

My mum gave me the Cherish album for Christmas, and I was listening along to the song "My First Night Alone Without You". I thought that I heard a name spoken at the beginning, but I wasn't sure. It sounded like "Kathleen" to me, but I couldn't be sure.

Do you hear anything on your copy?

MOIRA KENNEDY, St. Andrews, Fife, Scotland

I gave it a listen, Moira, but I couldn't come up with anything. I'm almost sure we have the same copies, although there could be a difference if you have an American version.

Perhaps someone else has heard the same thing. If so, both Moira and I would be glad to hear.

HAZEL EYES?

Dear Pat,

I have seen many photos of David and the colour of his eyes have varied between brown and

DAVID?

Dear Pat,

I just saw a copy of the January 1973 issue of The David Cassidy Magazine, and on the back there is a picture of Shirley with someone.

My friend says that it's David, but I'm not sure.

Can you tell us?

SALLY OWEN, Mottingham, Kent

Your friend's eyes are just that bit sharper than yours, Sally. That is indeed David, made up for an appearance in the Partridge Family.

I think it's safe to say that just about everyone prefers David with longer hair, don't you?
