

wouldn't you like to be WITH DAVID IN HOLLYWOOD

Whenever I have talked to David's fans in this country and asked them what they'd most like to do, the answer has almost always been 'To be with David in Hollywood'.

One of the marvellous things about the climate on the west coast of America, of course, is its wonderful weather. In fact that's the main reason the film men went to Hollywood way back in the silent film days. The beautiful clear air and bright sunshine, enabled them to film out of doors for more hours than almost any other place in the whole world. So, who can blame any David Cassidy fan for wanting to be on the west coast of America right now.

IN HIS HOUSE

But, of course, there's another and much more important reason why everyone wants to go to Hollywood - and that's to meet David personally, to be with him in his house, read film scripts with him, listen to his records, hear him working on songs for his new recording sessions. But, dreams of this kind only come true for a very small number of people.

And one of the luckiest people in this country right now is Clea Mylonas of Camberwell in London, who is the winner of the 'Have you met David' competition which we published in our November 1974 issue.

FEELINGS

In just a few short weeks Clea IS ACTUALLY GOING TO MEET DAVID. I think that she expresses her feelings so well herself that it is better if I just publish what Clea wrote to me when she heard that she was going to meet David. Here's her letter:

'Hi! My name is Clea. Looking at page 9 of the November issue of the David Cassidy Mag. I saw the 'Have You Met David' competition.

All through the years since I first heard of David, I have longed to meet him myself. But now, a month later, I can't help myself from bursting with joy and happiness, because my dream has come true. I am going to MEET DAVID! I may not know yet what it's like to have met David, but I already know that it will be GREAT to be with him in Hollywood. That's why I want to share this joy with you.

Of course, I am very proud that by winning
