

YOUR LETTERS

SACRILEGE

Dear Pat,

How could you? I put up with this from other mags—but the fan club mag! Please let this be above the ordinary. It began in April last year and I've suffered in silence up till now. The January issue finally made me decide to write to you. The cover pics on this particular copy are just beautiful, specially the front cover—but why oh why do you spoil it by printing a red circle saying "David's back in the studio" on his head?! Yes, I know it's good news—but to spoil such a picture is nothing short of sacrilege.

PAT ROBERTS, Pedmore, Stourbridge

I've gone and done it again with this issue Pat, but I'll do my best to avoid spoiling any pics of David next month. OK. ED

FACT?

Dear Pat,

Please help me! I read in the "Daily Mail Diary" yesterday that David has been going to art galleries with Yoko Ono (who married John Lennon). Please can you tell me if they're going steady. Mum says it's ridiculous since she is 41 and not very nice, but I'm sure she must be nice or David wouldn't go out with her. Oh! Pat, please help me—I love David so very much. Thank you.

EVELYN SILVERSTEIN, Chester, Cheshire

The "Daily Mail" doesn't usually get its facts wrong. But why shouldn't David go to an art gallery with Yoko? ED

CONCERT

Dear Pat,

In the February issue of the David Cassidy Magazine you printed a letter from a girl called Julie Anscombe who said that she managed to tape David's White City concert. I would like to get in touch with Julie so could you print this letter so that she could write to me.

SHARON JULL, 51 Edison Road, Welling, Kent, DA16 3NF

I haven't got Julie's letter so I'm printing your address so she can get in touch with you. ED

Dear Pat,

I would like to trade or buy concert and/or in person photographs of David. I also like to write to anyone interested in exchanging newspaper articles and magazines on David.

MARIE DOEKMECIOGLU, Kasinostrasse 24, D-565 Solingen 1, West Germany

Anyone want a German pen pal? ED

LETTERS

Dear Pat,

I liked the letters that have been put in the magazine on how girls have met David, and I wonder if you have any more letters like these you could print.

I find them fascinating and exciting to read and how nice David reacts to his fans.

CATHERINE JOHNSON, East Peckham, Kent

Thanks, Catherine—it's nice to know you like what we're doing. ED

NEGATIVES

Dear Pat,

I went to the White City concert in May and I didn't have a film for my camera. Now all I have are lovely memories of David. It would mean a lot to me if you could perhaps print this letter in the hope that anyone reading has any negatives. I hope you can help me.

CHRISTINE FORD, 19 Galway Square, Grindon, Sunderland

Any reader want to exchange pics of David's White City Concert? ED
