

YOUR LETTERS

GREEK FANS

Dear Pat,

We are just two of David's many fans out here in Greece. Of course, we think that we are his most ardent followers! Everyone here loves David very much and would like him to visit our beautiful country one day. We are prepared to wait until David has decided upon his future and we watch with interest to see what he will do next. Just tell him that he is always welcome here.

ANNY and DOLY, Messogeion-Tzavellato, Athens, Greece.

It's always good to hear from David's fans abroad. Who knows? Perhaps David will turn up in Greece one of these days! ED

PETITION

Dear Pat,

As all David's fans know, he had parts in both the Marcus Welby and Ironside series before starring in The Partridge Family. As they are both on the television at the moment I am planning to send a petition to Thames Television and the BBC, asking them to show the episodes that David was in.

If anyone else would like to see them too, would you, please, ask them to send letters and signatures to my address and I will send them on. Don't forget, I'll need two signatures from fans who would like to see episodes from both programmes! I bet that there are hundreds of people who feel like me.

SUSAN BARTRAM, Sunray Farm, 59 Woodmansterne Lane, Carshalton, Surrey.

What a great idea, Susan! Anyone want to help her? ED

CHOKER

Dear Pat,

Please could you tell me what David wears around his neck? What is it made of? I find it very intriguing.

MAUREEN CARROLL, Bromley, Kent.

David sometimes wears a gold medallion, Maureen, but I believe that the choker you are referring to is made of shells, graduating down in size towards the ends. ED

DIFFERENCES OF OPINION

Dear Pat,

My friend Julie says that on the third track of "Cassidy Live", after David says "Girl there's just no living", he says "without you." I think he says "wahaay". Please could you tell me which of us is right.

SUSAN DOWN, 207 Beverley Road, Ruislip, Middlesex, HA4 9AR

These differences of opinion are always fascinating, Susan, because David is not always too sure what he says himself! Perhaps other Cassidy experts would like to tell us what they think David says? ED

HELP

Dear Pat,

I am one of David's Japanese fans and I would like to ask his followers in Britain to help those of us out here.

David's programme "The Partridge Family" is on the television during the day, which means that all his fans are at school and cannot see it. I have written several times to the TV station to ask them to alter the viewing time, but my letters have had no effect.

Have any of David's fans in England ever tried to do anything like this? If so I would like to hear what happened, and, if they succeeded, how? I hope that someone will write to me.

KUNIKO TSUYOSE, 4-20-2 Yamato-Cho, Nakano-Ku, Tokyo 165, Japan.

Can anyone give Kuniko a few hints on persuading TV companies? I know that lots of you have tried it! ED
