

YOUR LETTERS

HAIRCUT

Dear Pat,

Since David has had his hair cut some of his "so-called" fans have deserted him. How can a few inches of his lovely hair make so much difference to a truly loving fan? Anyone who really loves him will agree with me, I'm sure.

By the way, keep up the good work with the magazine and please print this letter to show David that he still has many loving fans, hair or no hair.

JENNY, Basingstoke, Hants.

I don't think that things are quite as bad as that, Jenny! As you say, I'm sure that all of David's true fans love him just as much now as they've ever done. Thanks for the letter anyway. ED.

POEM

Dear Pat,

I have been an ardent fan of David's for about five years, and this poem is to show just how I've always felt about him. Please print it in the magazine.

His eyes are like stars, teeth white as pearls,
Sensuous lips and a warmth loved by girls,
Slim, sexy and agile, great on stage, drums,
guitar,

A superb sense of humour, he stands out from afar,

His name one of fame—a voice that we love,
He was sent down from heaven above,
Give you one guess who that might be,

It's no other than one David Bruce Cassidy!
CAROL HARRISON, Byre Hatch, Mayford, Surrey.

Thanks a lot for the poem, Carol. I'm sure that David is thrilled with it. We all love it here. ED.

OVERWHELMED

Dear Pat,

I was at David's White City concert last May, and, of course, being so overwhelmed at the thought of seeing him in the flesh for the first time, I left my camera and cassette behind!

Please print this plea because I live in hope that some kind-hearted, generous, fun-loving and beautiful person might read it and contact me if he/she has any negatives or tapes which they are willing to LEND me.

Of course, I'm willing to pay any price...!
ALISON, 20 Burns Lane, Warsop, Mansfield, Notts.

Hope you have some luck, Alison. I think that there are lots of people who are after those tapes and negatives! ED.

DUTCH FANS

Dear Pat,

I'm writing on behalf of all David's Dutch fans to say how much we all enjoyed his three concerts in Rotterdam. I only saw the last one, unfortunately, but it was the happiest day of my life.

After the concert we went to the Hilton, and although we weren't allowed in, David waved out of the window, which was a great thrill. I didn't intend to scream at that concert, but I found that I just had to when David started singing, especially that rock medley. It was wonderful. I'd like to live that day again, but don't think it would be possible.

SUKI, Nieuwstraat 27, Valkenswaard N-BR, Holland.

Glad to hear from David's fans abroad Suki. The concert sounded great. Who knows, perhaps you'll have another chance to see David someday! ED.
