

YOUR LETTERS

BUDDIES

Dear Pat,

Just writing to let David know that it was through him that my friend Maxine and I got together. It was at school and we were sorting some text books out when we came across some pics of David. We both gave a little sigh and realised that we were both D.C. fans.

We've been together for about 2 years now and are still fans of David. We went to see him at White City together and that was really fantastic. Thanks a lot David.

MARY McSHEFFREY, 57 Denbigh Road, East Ham, London E6.

I'm sure that David will be thrilled to hear that he bought you two buddies together Mary. As you know, he loves to see people getting on well and you two certainly seem to. ED.

NEW FRIENDS

Dear Pat,

I moved down here about six months ago from Glasgow and since then I've found it a bit difficult to make any new friends.

I am 17 years old, fairly quiet and shy, and a great fan of David. I would love to hear from any of his fans, boys or girls, who live near me, preferably of my age.

LYN THOMSON, 13 Kirkway, Bebington, Wirral, Merseyside.

I expect that there are a few of you who know how hard it is to make new friends when you move to a new town, so how about all you Cassidy fans in Wirral dropping Lyn a line? ED.

BEST SINGLE YET

Dear Pat,

I have just heard David's new single, "I Write The Songs", and I am lost for words! Honestly and truthfully, it's the best he's ever done. We had to wait quite a while for it, but it was worth waiting for. It's really beautiful and David's singing is just way out.

So thanks a million David for working so hard. I hope you feel that it's been worthwhile, and that you are happy about it.

Must dash now, there's a certain single I've
