

got to buy, and I just can't wait. (No prizes for guessing the title!).

RUTH KAYE: Ilford, Essex.

Yes, Ruth, we quite agree. The new single certainly was worth the long wait. Just wait until you hear the 'B' side too! It's called "Get It Up For Love", and although it's more funky than "I Write The Songs", I think you'll like it just as much. ED.

PHOTO-SWOP

Dear Pat,

I have read lots of letters in the magazine from people who would like to get hold of photos of David, and I would be grateful if you would print this letter because I have several different ones taken in America, and I'd love to swap them for other photos of David. I'll send prints to anyone who doesn't have photos to swap, but PLEASE send an S.A.E.

LYNNE RICHARDS, Wilmslow, Cheshire.

There you are folks! An offer you can't refuse. The one you've all been waiting for. Don't forget to send Lynne a stamped addressed envelope though! ED.

BUMPER RHYME!

Dear Pat,

I would be very happy if you would put my poem in the magazine.

D is for David, you are mine

A is for Adoring, loving and divine

V is for Vibrations, which you send through me

I is for Idol, the one I'd love to see

D is for David, spelt with just a plain D

C is for Cassidy, the loveliest name

A is for Andrew—just not the same

S is for Superstar, by that I mean him

S—"Some Kind Of Summer", the song that he sings

I is the start of I'll love you for ever

D is for Don't, and that I'll say never

Y is for You, bet you love him too!

ELAINE WAYMARK, London.

That's certainly a bumper rhyme Elaine!

What a great idea to put it to David's name. I'm sure that he'll love it too. ED.
