BEST EVER

Dear Pat,

I've got it! (Got what, you may ask?) The album! Wow, this guy is so good it makes ya sick! This masterpiece in black plastic leaves me pretty well speechless I can tell ya.

I just had to get my bit in and say clearly and concisely that this is his best album ever, and I can't wait for the next one. (Please David write some more numbers like "This Could Be The Night", and if you're going to do another "Love In Bloom" warn me first so that I can stock up with Kleenex for when the tears start rolling!)

By the way, I love that little bit of intro on "I Write The Songs". Anyway, bye for now.

David's album has evoked some enthusiastic response Eileen, but your letter just about tops the lot I think. Hope that the next one isn't TOO much better than "I Write The Songs"—I think that the strain might be too much for you! ED.

SPECIAL REQUESTS

Dear Pat,

I don't know whether the "Command Performance" idea has started in all ITV regions, but in the Granada area you can now write and ask for a certain episode of a series that was shown on ITV between 1950 and 1970. I have written to ask for another look at "Fun and Games and Michael Ambrose" ("Marcus Welby MD") and "The Fatal Imposter" ("FBI"), in which David has guest roles. Obviously, the more people who write to them the better, so I thought that perhaps you might print the address, so that more of David's fans can state their requirements. This is it: Leslie Halliwell, Granada TV, TV Centre, Manchester M60 9EA. Thanks a lot. DEVOTED DAVID FAN, Tameside, Cheshire.

I think that all you up there in the Granada area are a lucky bunch! I'm sure that they won't be short of letters in the TV Centre in the next few weeks. ED.
